Register of Authorities – Children’s Services

Functions Delegated to The Director of Children’s Services

The Director for Children’s Services may exercise the following functions. Additionally, the Director may authorise other officers to undertake the delegation on their behalf as set out in this register. Where post titles have been amended the authority can be exercised by the new equivalent post until the register is amended.

If the Director for Children’s Services is unable to act for any reason, the principal solicitors may discharge all of the functions set out below.

For the avoidance of doubt, in all cases where the exercise of executive functions is not specifically reserved to the Executive, those functions are deemed to be delegated to the Chief Executive and the Chief Officer with responsibility for the relevant function.

The Director for Children’s Services may delegate these functions to proper officers employed by other local authorities to be exercised under agreed joint arrangements.

Register of Authorities – Environment

Functions Delegated to the Strategic Director for the Environment

The Strategic Director for the Environment may exercise the following functions. Additionally, the Director may authorise other officers to undertake the delegation on their behalf as set out in this register. Where post titles have been amended the authority can be exercised by the new equivalent post until the register is amended.

If the Strategic Director for the Environment is unable to act for any reason, the principal solicitors may discharge all of the functions set out below.

For the avoidance of doubt, in all cases where the exercise of executive functions is not specifically reserved to the Executive, those functions are deemed to be delegated to the Chief Executive and the Chief Officer with responsibility for the relevant function.

The Strategic Director for the Environment may delegate these functions to proper officers employed by other local authorities to be exercised under agreed joint arrangements.

Register of Authorities - Social Care

Functions Delegated to the Strategic Director of Social Care

The Strategic Director of Social Care may exercise the following functions. Additionally, the Director may authorise other officers to undertake the delegation on their behalf as set out in this register. Where post titles have been amended the authority can be exercised by the new equivalent post until the register is amended.

If the Strategic Director of Social Care is unable to act for any reason, the principal solicitors may discharge all of the functions set out below.

For the avoidance of doubt, in all cases where the exercise of executive functions is not specifically reserved to the Executive, those functions are deemed to be delegated to the Chief Executive and the Chief Officer with responsibility for the relevant function.

The Strategic Director of Social Care may delegate these functions to proper officers employed by other local authorities to be exercised under agreed joint arrangements.
