Councillor Sharon Holder declared a disclosable pecuniary interest in Special Motions 2 and 6 on Trade Unions as she was an employee of the GMB Trade Union. Councillor Holder later left the room during discussion of the matter without speaking or voting thereon.

In respect of Special Motion 4, Fixing the Dire Special Educational Needs Transport Service, Councillor Ben Coleman declared a significant interest as he was a governor at Queensmill School and had been a governor at Jack Tizard School for 8 years before that. 9.37pm – Councillor Stephen Cowan moved, seconded by Councillor Max Schmid, the special motion standing in their names:

“The Council notes the damage done by the government’s bedroom tax and agrees to oppose any proposals to introduce a mansion tax.

The Council is appalled at research which found that 28% of tenants affected by the bedroom tax are in rent arrears for the first time. And notes the University of York conclusion that this policy will end up costing more overall to the public purse whereas it had been intended to save public money. The Council regrets the unnecessary hardship brought about by the bedroom tax and calls on the government to end this unfairness and repeal the bedroom tax.

Furthermore, this Council notes that the mansion tax is flawed in design and in principle.

The Council agrees to oppose such measures and to lobby against them.”

Under Standing Order 15(e) (vi), Councillor Charlie Dewhirst moved, seconded by Councillor Robert Largan, an amendment to the motion as follows:

23.5 Special Motion 6 - Trades Unions

10.10pm – Councillor Max Schmid moved, seconded by Councillor Lisa Homan, the special motion standing in their names:

“The Council notes the countries and governments throughout time that have sought decay and attack the role of trades unions in their societies have been some of the worst, totalitarian regimes in history. Those have included many despicable regimes such as Apartheid South Africa, Pinochet’s Chile and the fascists regimes of Europe in the 1930s and 40s.

The Council believes that trade unions have many strengths and play an important part in representing hard working people and ensuring fairness at work. As Pope Francis says “Trades Unions have been an essential force for social change”. That said, this Council also recognises that there are weaknesses within the trades union movement and notes that at the last borough elections a Trades Unions and Socialists Against Cuts candidate chose to stand in a previously marginal Labour ward and therefore became a de-facto ally of the Conservative Party in their unsuccessful bid to hold onto control of what had been known as “Cameron’s favourite council”.

This Council considers that trades unions have an important role to play in society and expects management, members of staff, contractors and trades unions to all work together to build an effective, customer service orientated council that delivers high quality, good value services to residents with employees treated with respect, in positive working environments and on fair pay, terms and conditions.

The Council calls on the Conservative Opposition to learn the lessons of history, to stop union bashing and take a more balanced and reasoned view of trades unions."

Under Standing Order 15(e) (vi), Councillor Harry Phibbs moved, seconded by Councillor Viya Nsumbu, an amendment to the motion as follows:

“Add at end of first paragraph “... and the Soviet Union, all of which refused to allow independent trade unions.

Delete second third and fourth paragraphs and insert:

The Council further notes:

1. The rise of Solidarnosc in Poland was crucial to that country being liberated from totalitarian Socialism to becoming a democratic country with a free market economy. As Pope Francis says “Trades Unions have been an essential force for social change”.

2. Trade unions continue to be oppressed under totalitarian regimes today, notably in Cuba and Venezuela.
3. Trade Unions were first legalised in the United Kingdom 1824 when the Conservative government of Lord Liverpool repealed the Combination Acts.
4. The empowerment of trade unionists by the Margaret Thatcher governments – including the introduction of the right to mandatory secret ballots, the abolition of the closed shop and the outlawing of intimidatory mass picketing.

This Council believes that trade unions should be voluntary, independent from the state and accountable to their members.”

(Councillor Sharon Holder had declared a disclosable pecuniary interest in the special motion and left the room during discussion of the matter without speaking or voting thereon.)

23.6 Special Motion 2 - Trade Unions

10.12pm – Councillor Harry Phibbs moved, seconded by Councillor Greg Smith, the special motion standing in their names:

“This Council recognises that for trade unions to be free and independent they should be financed by their members rather than the state.

Therefore this Council resolves that:

- (1) While the Council should be flexible in allowing staff to spend time working for trade unions, Council staff will not be paid for any time they spend on trade union activity.
- (2) The collection of membership subscriptions will be a matter for the trade unions themselves rather than something the Council is involved with via the payroll system.
- (3) The Council should cease providing office accommodation to trade unions on Council premises at below market rents.”

Under Standing Order 15(e) (vi), Councillor Rory Vaughan moved, seconded by Councillor Alan De’Ath, an amendment to the motion as follows:

23.7 Special Motion 1 - Labour's Mansion Tax

10.14pm – Councillor Charlie Dewhirst moved, seconded by Councillor Robert Largan, the special motion standing in their names:

“The Council notes the recent proposals announced by Ed Balls MP, Shadow Chancellor, for a “Mansion Tax” on homes valued over £2m. It also notes that over 50% of all individuals who would have to pay such a tax nationally are within just five London Boroughs including Hammersmith & Fulham.

The Council recognises that due to significant increases in local property prices, large numbers of residents living in average family homes, including many on low incomes, will be hit by this tax, paying bills starting from £20,000 per year. It recognises that this policy, if implemented, could lead to many local people being forced to move out of the borough.

This Council deplores this ideologically led warfare against property ownership and resolves to oppose these proposals.”

Under Standing Order 15(e) (vi), Councillor PJ Murphy moved, seconded by Councillor Natalia Perez Shepherd, an amendment to the motion as follows:

“Delete all after “This Council” and insert:

“agrees to lobby against the Mansion Tax.”

PUBLIC QUESTION TIME

LONDON BOROUGH OF HAMMERSMITH & FULHAM

COUNCIL MEETING – 22 OCTOBER 2014

Question by: Mr Brian Mooney

To: The Cabinet Member for Environment, Transport and Residents Services

---

QUESTION

“I understand that the Council is proceeding with a public consultation, including a feasibility design, on a substantially borough-wide 20mph zone.

I wish to point out that:

1. Speed is not the major factor in motor accidents - misjudgement, inattention or tiredness are far more likely to be at fault.
2. Wide area 20mph zones elsewhere have not been respected by drivers who perceive this speed limit as unnaturally low.

Can you please provide quantified hard evidence that having such a zone in the Borough earlier would have prevented any accidents?”

ANSWER

The 20 mph is one of our manifesto commitments and something we are keen to move forward on. There are a number of studies that correlate vehicle speed to casualty risk and severity.

The DfT studies show that every 1mph reduction in speed equals to 6% reduction in casualty rates.

Portsmouth was the first city to implement an authority-wide 20mph limit, that saw a 1.3mph average speed reduction along with a 21% casualty reduction.

There have been a number of London borough-wide 20mph limits but they have not been in long enough to have sufficient data for comparison, such as in Islington.

In terms of evidence, there have been a number of 20mph zones that have been introduced in the borough:

20mph zone	"Before" injuries (3 year period)	"After" injuries (3 year period)	Reduction in injuries (%)
Brook Green	42	25	40%
Wormholt Park area	26	14	46%
North End Road East	11	5	55%
Thornfield Road	10	3	70%
Cathnor Park	19	8	68%

COUNCIL MEETING – 22 OCTOBER 2014

Question by: Mr Will Marshall

To: The Leader of the Council

QUESTION

“If the Council is no longer proceeding with the joint-venture schemes for Watermeadow Court and Edith Summerskill House, what are its intentions for these two sites?”

ANSWER

The Council has given no indication that it is not proceeding with the joint-venture and as it stands, the plans are the same as they were since the joint-venture was put together in February 2013 and the land sale completed in March.

QUESTION

“What discussions, and by whom, has the administration had with board members and/or representatives of West Kensington and Gibbs Green Community Homes (WKGGCH) Ltd following the resolution granted at the general meeting of WKGGCH on 1st July 2014 proposing the serving of a Right to Transfer notice on Hammersmith and Fulham Council, and what steps has the council, as a social landlord, taken to inform all affected residents across the two estates of the outcomes of those discussions?”

ANSWER

Following receipt of correspondence from West Ken and Gibbs Green Community Homes Limited (WKGGCH) on 11 July 2014, requesting a meeting with officers to discuss their prospective application under Section 34, Melbourne Barrett, Executive Director of Housing and Regeneration and Kathleen Corbett, Director for Finance & Resources have met with them and informed Lead Members. I have not met personally with the board, and clearly should any actions arising take place then our first priority would be to inform all residents on the Gibbs Green and West Ken estate about what was happening. This is an ongoing process and as soon as there is any news then you would be the first to find out via a direct communication to every single resident.
