List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

- A written notice of 'authority' record is maintained for staff who sell alcohol
- Comprehensive training for staff in the main requirements of the Licensing Act 2003, the specific measures and conditions in place to promote the Licensing Objectives and the staff roles and responsibilities. Such records shall be available for inspection by the responsible authorities.
- Contact details of the Designated Premises Supervisor shall be available to staff and to the authorities
- Deliveries shall only be made to postal addresses (not to open spaces)
- A clear document trail shall be maintained of the order process from order, despatch from the licensed premises and delivery to the customer and available for inspection by an authorised officer
- Strict terms and conditions emphasising the right to and the duty to refuse alcohol sales or supplies where there are concerns over age, drunkenness or the vulnerability of customers, which shall be included in promotional material, on the website and through staff training.
- A written or digital record of refusals (to leave alcohol at given address) shall be kept on the delivery vehicle and maintained, recording the address, date, time and reason for the refusal.
- Delivery staff shall not be given any incentive to sell or deliver alcohol
- Alcohol may not be sold from the delivery vehicle
- The delivery person may only carry alcohol that has been pre-ordered
- When the delivery person is employed directly by the Premises Licence Holder, a register of staff details must be kept on the premises and must be made available for inspection by Local Authority officers and the Police.
- Alcohol will only be delivered to the person who placed the order and whose name appears on the debit or credit card used for the transaction.
- Records of all alcohol sales including the customer's name and delivery address must be retained for 12 months and made available for inspection by Local Authority officers and the Police.
- Customers may attend the premises between the hours of 1000-1800hrs for the purpose of click and collect of groceries, but not to purchase or collect alcohol.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

- The premises licence holder shall install and maintain a comprehensive closed-circuit television (CCTV) system that will record all public entry and exit points to the premises; the recordings will enable frontal identification of every customer entering the premise in all lighting conditions.
- The premises licence holder will ensure that the closed-circuit television (CCTV) system shall continually record whilst the premises are open for licensable activities and at all times whilst customers are present on the premises.
- All recordings from the closed-circuit television (CCTV) system shall be stored for a minimum period of twenty-eight (28) days and will be date and time stamped.

Staff should be able to operate the system fully and be able to show footage as captured to both the police and other authorised officers on request
- Staffing levels shall be maintained appropriately to ensure adequate security of the premises.
- Staff shall be trained on all security issues including how to identify and to refuse service to customers that are drunk or appear to be drunk.
- The business shall be a responsible alcohol retailer and will always refuse to supply alcohol where there is a likelihood that such a sale might contribute to crime and disorder.
- There shall be no cash handling by delivery staff.
- There shall be no cash handling by click and collect staff.
- The premises licence holder will ensure that an incident log shall be kept at the premises for a period no less than six (6) months, and made available on request to an authorised officer of the licensing authority or the police, which will note the following: (a) all crimes reported to the venue, or by the venue to the Police (b) names and/or descriptions of all ejected patrons (c) any complaints received (d) any incidents of disorder, seizures of drugs, offensive weapons, fraudulent ID or

- Deliveries will be conducted in a responsible and considerate manner, ensuring no disturbance to local residents or businesses
- The site and public areas near to the premises are kept free from litter associated with the operation of the business
- Deliveries to and waste removal from the site are undertaken at a time and in a manner that does not cause disturbance
- No light on or from the property shall be provided where that light causes a nuisance to nearby residents or businesses

e) The protection of children from harm

- Terms & conditions stressing that the purchaser and those receiving a delivery of alcohol must be at least 18 years of age
- There shall be an effective Challenge 25 policy
- At the time an order is placed a declaration will be required from the person placing the order that the person is over 18 years of age.
- The online ordering process will prevent the consumer from placing an order until they have read the Challenge 25 statement unless the business calls the consumer to provide this information verbally before the order is accepted.
- Anyone receiving a delivery and not appearing to be of the age of 25 years will be required to produce appropriate identification proving that they have turned 18 in order to be supplied with alcohol

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.

 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
