

Report of the Independent Panel - Recommendations of the Remuneration of Councillors in London 2022

Level of Basic Allowance

Now is not the right moment to recommend major changes to the current allowances (beyond the annual updating). Linking the allowances to an annual increase to staff pay awards will ensure that councillors can receive annual increases which are in line with those received by staff. We therefore recommend that the Basic Allowance be set at £12,014 pending the outcome of the 2021-22 award. We believe that it remains sensible to frame recommendations which are common across London

Special Responsibility Allowances

For the same reasons which prompt us to maintain the current Basic Allowance, (namely a significant uncertainty over the long term implications of the changes we have been witnessing in the last 18 months, combined with the financial challenges faced at this time) we recommend that the special responsibility allowance for a Leader should be in accordance with our former recommendation (£57,085), plus the subsequent local government staff pay awards (including an indicative uplift of 1.75% for 2021-22 which is still the subject of negotiation), i.e. £62,092.

We also recommend the maintenance of its relation to other special responsibility allowances, as set out in the Appendix to this report which can be found at: <https://www.londoncouncils.gov.uk/node/39359>

Training and Support

The responsibilities of councillors are substantial, extensive and complex.

The Pandemic has also resulted in an acceleration of more flexible ways of working including greater use of digital technology. While this has provided a range of benefits including less travelling for work it has required councillors to have the necessary digital skills. Additionally, the move to audio visual conferencing has resulted in a growth in meetings for many contributing to an overall increase in 'screen time'.

We believe that every borough should:

- have an ongoing programme of member training and development
- provide members with the logistical and clerical support and the appropriate IT equipment to help them deal with their workload.

Barriers to being a councillor

- Allowance for care of dependents.

It is important that obstacles to becoming a councillor should be removed wherever possible. Care costs can be a significant deterrent to service as a councillor. Our strong view is that in appropriate cases when they undertake their council duties, councillors should be entitled to claim an allowance for care of dependents.

- Dependents' carers' allowance

The dependents' carers' allowance should be set at the London living wage but (on presentation of proof of expense) payment should be made at a higher rate when specialist nursing skills are required.

- Special Responsibility Allowances in the case of sickness, maternity and paternity leave

Our view is that members' allowances schemes should allow the continuance of Special Responsibility Allowances in the case of sickness, maternity and paternity leave in the same terms that the council's employees enjoy such benefits (that is to say, they follow the same policies).

Travel and Subsistence allowances

The Basic Allowance should cover basic out-of-pocket expenses incurred by councillors, including intra-borough travel costs and expenses. The members' allowances scheme should, however, provide for special circumstances, such as travel after late meetings or travel by councillors with disabilities. The scheme should enable councillors to claim travel expenses when their duties take them out of their home borough, including a bicycle allowance.

Allowances for Mayor or Civic Head

Many councils include the allowances for the mayor (or civic head) and deputy in their members' allowance scheme. However, these allowances do serve a rather different purpose from the 'ordinary' members' allowances, since they are intended to enable the civic heads to perform a ceremonial role. There are separate statutory provisions (ss 3 and 5 of the Local Government Act 1972) for such allowances and councils may find it convenient to use those provisions rather than to include the allowances in the members' allowance scheme.

Update for inflation

We continue to recommend that all allowances should be updated annually in accordance with the headline figure in the annual local government pay settlement.

The Regulations make it obligatory for the annual updating of the Scheme to be formally authorised by the council each year.
