1.	Item 4 – Update on Co-production	Jane Wilmot said the Council wrote a statement for every (Civic Campus) contractor that set out its expectations around inclusivity. The Chair suggested these elements could be written into a range of contracts and activities undertaken by the Council. She asked officers to investigate potential areas where this could be done.	Response from the procurement team: When we seek to buy goods, works and services, the specification identifies the context and requirements. Co-production allows for joint development of the specification. Engagement supports understanding of requirements and formal consultation may also be involved for some regulated areas. Any contractual requirements will be derived from the specification and align with H&F contractual clauses regarding equalities. Based on the specification, our procurements can then include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • specific questions relating to inclusion in the evaluation of tenders for goods, works or services we are buying. • social/added value for contracts over £100k, where some measures are aimed 	Julian Eccles	Done

9.	Item 4 – Intergenerational Practice	Officers to investigate London-based charity that matched young people looking for somewhere to stay with older people who had a spare room. Suggested the Council could promote.	In Adult Social Care a scheme that is similar to this is Shared Lives Plus (sharedlivesplus.org.uk) and officers are in the process of developing a business case for starting this in H&F. Shared Lives is a care and support service which is for people aged 16+ (in England and Scotland) and 18+ (in Wales and Northern Ireland) who want to live independently in their community, with the support of a family and community network. It's an alternative to supported living or residential care. Shared Lives carers use their own home and family life to share it with someone who needs support around the UK.	Julius Olu	Done
	Item 4 – Intergenerational Practice	Officers to explore: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • how the Council could highlight services available to charities and other groups. • programmes where students helped out in care homes (see Hammersmith Academy and the Elgin Centre).
