Reasons for comment:

Comments: 24/04/2024 2:55 PM Failure of owner of this premises and staff to respond to residents' complaints prompts us to object to this LAPR. These inc groups of male customers obstructing the pavement, littering, idling vehicles, dangerous double parking and parking on double yellow lines and in bike lanes at this junction made in person and via LET and Police. Residents have repeatedly reported ASB and crime at junction to LET, Police, Councillors, Council inc 17 April 10pm approx outside the premises 2-3 police cars inc unmarked making arrests, 12 April 5pm approx knife fight outside Loftus Villas near the junction reported by Lucy, 8 April young men in 2 BMWs in Loftus Road then arrested in Coverdale Road 6pm approx., month ago Batman Close drugs arrest of courier, 22 Feb 11pm approx. Loftus Road at this junction violent altercation between men on motorcycles with Police road blocks in Loftus Road + Eilerslie Road, 6 months ago Loftus Road stabbing at Batman Close end; regular reports of drug dealing, car breakins, car keying.

Police Officer feedback to residents' complaints about this premises: ' I can confirm that Police Licensing have major concerns with this application . . . I am meeting with both the Safer Neighbourhood Team and the Local Authority next week to establish the extent of the issues that the premises and immediate vicinity are causing, specifically to local residents.'

The recent expansion of this premises to inc the opening of Hayber Restaurant with new direct customer access on Loftus Road inc illuminated signage needs to be reviewed as part of this application.
