DETAILED ANALYSIS

Proposals and Analysis of Options

- 1. Each local authority is required to publish the arrangements it has made to discharge its functions in a 'constitution' prepared in accordance with Section 37 of the Local Government Act 2000. The Constitution sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure business is conducted in an efficient, transparent, and accountable manner. Some of the content of the Constitution is required by law, the remainder is for the Council itself to determine.
- 2. The Constitution is reviewed at least annually to ensure it continues to promote timely, effective, transparent, and lawful decision making reflecting the arrangements Members have put in place for the running of the Council.
- 3. In-year amendments were approved by Council to the Scheme of Delegation to Officers to reflect recent changes in organisational structure and changes to the responsibilities of Chief Officers.
- 4. The Monitoring Officer has a duty to keep the Constitution under review and has delegated authority to amend the Constitution where there has been a change in law, job title, structure, rearrangement of job responsibilities or for general administrative convenience. All extensive changes to the Constitution, however, must be approved by Full Council.

As the second Opposition Group on the Council the following positions have been notified:
  - a. Councillor Trey Campbell-Simon Leader of the Green Group

The public must be excluded from meetings whenever it is likely, in view of the nature of business to be transacted or the nature of the proceedings, that confidential information would be disclosed.
- 23.3 If there is a general disturbance making orderly business impossible, the Chairman may adjourn the meeting for as long as he/she thinks is necessary.

  - (iii) reports relating to items when the meeting was open to the public.
