Ms Kamini Sanghani has lived in Shepherd's Bush for four years, and has previously lived and worked in Hammersmith and Fulham for two years. She is passionate about reducing social and economic exclusion through effective careers guidance and employment, and has worked in this field for the last twelve years. She has also developed rehabilitation solutions for people on community and prison sentences, to help improve their chances of gaining employment and desisting from crime. Whilst volunteering at a Youth Offending Team, Kamini helped young people to identify positive activities and aspirations to reduce their chances of re-offending. She is an active campaigner locally and supported the 'Save the Hospitals' campaign. Based on her professional experience and contributions to the social wellbeing of children in the Borough, she would make a positive contribution to the work of the Governing Body of Greenside Primary School, and should therefore be appointed.
